RE: By-Laws Revisions and Judicial Board Oversight Committee

Numerous violations were found in the proposed By-Laws revisions.

The following were found to be in violation of the ASUCI Constitution:

By-Law	Violates ASUCI Constitution:
Article VI, Section G, 6	Article V, Section C, 7
Article XII, Section A, 2 Article XIII, 2 Article XIV, Section A, 3	Article IV, Section C, 2 Article III, Section B
Article XI, Section A, 2	Article V, Section D, 2 (a)

In addition to these violations, the Judicial Board finds that the Judicial Board Oversight Committee (By-Laws: Article XV, Section B) is vague and unclear. The By-Laws do not contain, "The duties of the Judicial Board Oversight Committee," and there are no, "Judicial Board Oversight Committee Guidelines," (ASUCI Constitution: Article VI, Section E), to govern this body.

Furthermore, a Judicial Board Oversight Committee inherently violates Article III, Section B of the ASUCI Constitution, which states, "No person or group of persons in any one of these branches [Legislative, Executive, Judicial] shall exercise power belonging to another branch, except herein after expressly directed or permitted."

It is here ordered.
