ASUCI Judicial Board

DATE: April 21, 2001

TO: ASUCI Executive Cabinet, Legislative Council, & Elections Commission

FROM: Judicial Board

SUBJECT: Preliminary Restraining Order

The ASUCI Judicial Board has issued a restraining order on the Elections Commission, placing an injunction on the recall of Koko Panossian, ASUCI President, from being placed on the 2001 Spring Election Ballot.

After the preliminary hearing on the petition of Koko Panossian to investigate the policies and procedures of the presidential recall, the ASUCI Judicial Board found sufficient evidence to hold a formal hearing on the matter.

Due to insufficient time to fully investigate the matter, Judicial Board has thus placed an injunction on the recall from being placed on the Spring 2001 ballot. This will allow Judicial Board to thoroughly review and consider all facts and evidence presented by both parties in a fair and timely manner.

If deemed necessary, the recall will be placed on a special Spring ballot.
