Opinion of the Board

Senate Resolution R55-04 calls for all members of the Executive cabinet staff listed in the legislation to receive back end pay for their duties performed before being officially appointed and start receiving pay for their respective positions. For most of the individuals listed, this is a non-issue. However, one of the members listed is currently serving as an active Senator. According to the ASUCI By-Laws, under Article 3, Section B, Subsection 13, "a regular Senator shall not hold another ASUCI paid office during their term on the Senate." Seeing as the member in question is indeed an active Senator, R55-05 cannot be passed in its current state. Doing so directly violates the ASUCI By-Laws.
