Judicial Board

Preliminary Injunction on the Termination of a Former Speakers Commission
Director

BY ORDER OF THE ASUCI JUDICIAL BOARD

Dated: November 21, 2023

Date Rescinded: December 18, 2023

On October 17th, 2023, The Student Advocate General, pursuant to their responsibilities under Art. 9 § 3(b)(5) of the ASUCI Constitution, brought to the Judicial Board a completed Investigation Report by the Internal Student Advocate General against the Academic Affairs Vice President and several members of their office.

Under Art. 8 § 2(f-g) of the ASUCI Constitution, the Judicial Board has the authority and powers to “nullify any measure that is considered unconstitutional and order the immediate halt of those actions” and “judge the constitutionality of actions by the Executive Cabinet.”

The Judicial Board, by a unanimous consensus, finds it necessary to properly examine this issue through means dedicated to it under Art. 8 § 2(f-g) of the ASUCI Constitution and Art. 6 § E(15) of the ASUCI Judicial Board Policies via preliminary injunction, halting and nullifying the termination of the complainant named in the Internal Student Advocate General’s report pending the results of the hearing process pursuant to Art 6 § A-D of the Judicial Board Policies and Procedures.

BY ORDER OF THE JUDICIAL BOARD,

Kaitlin Vu
